4. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please read and sign the terms and conditions of enrolment.

- By completing and signing this enrolment form I agree to all its terms, conditions and requirements. I accept and agree that for the good management of the Greek School, School fees in any one year are due and payable prior to my child (or children) commencing lessons at the School unless other arrangements have been made.
In the event of delay or default of payment my child (or children) will be excluded from participation in lessons until payment is received in full.
- Publication of Images and Information.
I understand and accept that the Greek School or its authorised representative may publish images of my child and information about my child (the name of my child as stated on this enrolment form) on St Anna's website and in other school and community and social online and print media, at school and community functions and events, for general promotional and informational purposes. Policy for unauthorised taking of images and photography will be advised at the various Greek School Functions and celebrations held during the year.
- If your child wishes to bring their mobile phones to Greek School, they are not be used during classroom hours. It is only for emergency purposes after receiving permission from their teacher. The teacher reserves the right to confiscate the mobile phone until the end of class if this is not complied with.
- The children must attend Greek school with closed shoes. Thongs (flip flops) or open toed shoes or sandals are prohibited.
- Students are to bring a drink bottle at all times to Greek School to refill with water as required.
- In keeping with expectations of the mainstream (primary and secondary) schooling system, disobedience, rude and bullying behaviour(s) will not be tolerated. Parents will be notified if their child/children violate these common courtesies and expectations and children may be precluded from further attendance at their teacher's discretion.
